

books other mainly music children enjoy in australia

Nancy's child loves The Three Little Pigs

Why does she love this book? "Actually I don't know exactly. She always likes animals very much! She has learned many things from this story. This is even more important."

Kelly's child loves Little Bunny Foo Foo

"They never seem to get enough of the Little Bunny Foo Foo's naughty antics and just love to sing along to the song."

Karen's child loves Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes

"Riley is 18 months old and enjoys this story most because it includes lots of children and a few animals but also because he has just learnt fingers and toes and points to them when they are mentioned in the story. He also likes the kisses on the nose at the end of the story."

Caleb loves Practice being Godly

"I love it because I read it just with mummy and it teaches me about God. I love the activities in it too and mummy sings me a song after we read it."

Rhonda's children love The Very Cranky Bear

"The girls love it when Dad reads the story as he does a really good bear ROAR which apart from slightly scaring the girls then puts them into giggles."
